Subhojit Roy (popularly known as “Español ढा”) holds a Double Master’s degree in Literature and Language in both English and Spanish, securing First Division in both. He has completed his academic journey across five institutions: University of Calcutta, Rabindra Bharati University, Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), Jadavpur University, and the University of Salamanca, Spain. He is the Founder and Director of La Casa de los Políglotas. With a strong background in language education, he has previously served as a faculty member at the Institute of International Teachers Training (IITT) Language Academy and as a Visiting Lecturer at Calcutta Business School (CBS). He also taught Italian as a Guest Faculty at Ramakrishna Mission Vidyamandira, Belur Math, and currently teaches Spanish at the same institution. He completed his first teacher training course at the University of Salamanca, Spain in 2021, and in 2024, he again received advanced training from the same university under a fully funded scholarship awarded by the Government of Spain and the European Union. He has also worked as an External Invigilator for Instituto Cervantes, Embassy of Spain, New Delhi, and has represented as an international speaker in collaboration with the Embassy of Portugal, New Delhi. Additionally, he was awarded a merit-based course, fully funded, at the Universidad Católica del Maule, Chile.
